

“Courtney Davis' body of work is the sine que non (absolutely indispensable part) of Celtic art. Long before that night where we all went to bed and woke up Irish, long before the global re-enchantment with all things Celtic, Courtney Davis was laying out an artistic road map pointing the way back to the heart of our Celtic roots.

His deep affinity for the rich symbolism of the Celtic Pagan and Christian artistic traditions shines out from everything he does. His artistic work covers an impressively broad range, from the darkest recesses of the primal Pagan mind, to the magical blending of Pagan and Christian in the Arthurian and Grail legends, to the vast pantheon of Celtic Christian saints.

He is without a doubt the most well-known and widely published Celtic artist in the world.” Tim Campbell ,Amber Lotus

ENERGY TRANSITION WORKSHOPS

At UNION HALL

Courtney Davis

AN EVENING WITH COURTNEY DAVIS

Courtney Davis had his first encounter with the Merlin Energy after a serious spine operation in 1974, this experience was to be the start of a 30 year life changing journey of collaboration with the Mage and the inspiration that helped the creation of 50 published books over this period.

Courtney will talk about working with the energy, how it effected his art and his life. You will be invited to connect with this energy as a group and it is hoped that like many people on these evenings before, you may experience of its power for yourselves..

In 2011 Merlin stepped away and a series of transformational changes began to happen that would totally change the way that Courtney worked and viewed the world about him. This evening is a foretaste of further events that may help to take the serious seeker closer to their re-connection with the Divine whether its the Beloved, Universe, Spirit, God.

A short period of trance will occur at these events.

LIFESOURCE EVENT

Many energy workers have spoken of Courtney's paintings as doorways or portals that will effect change both spiritually and emotionally , Courtney always enjoys sharing this potential with those who attend the art events.

Courtney will explain how the art was created and something of the impact they each had on my own spiritual awakening and take you into those energies so you may share something of the experience he works in each day.

Its not an evening of religious beliefs, Courtney will offer you the opportunity to become more open to awareness of your potential, your connection with the Universe and everything around you and hopefully offer some spark to experience life in a very different way.

You are invited to bring a small piece of personal clothing of someone who may need healing about 4cms x 20cms in size to attach to the painting Lifesource at some point in the evening.

Some meditation periods of 15 mins duration.

TRANSITION EVENT

Transition was completed in May 2013 and was another milestone of change and reflects a deepening into the re-connection to the Beloved, The Universe, Spirit or God.

The Transition energetic transformation workshops can be life challenging for those who come. It quickly became clear that as well as challenging, the paintings offered a safe and still place for those who came and often people would come to the same event again purely to return to that still place so they could re-experience it again.

All the events have always been special part of Courtney's life , they seem always to be memorable and inspiring for those who come. For each person its obviously very different, for some the energies are more subtle and may come into play the next day or even a week away, but it will happen.

Several meditation periods of 30 mins duration throughout the day.
